Writ to the treasurer and barons of the exchequer on the complaint of Thomas de Luvetot that the late escheator took into the king's hand the lands &c. late of the said Ralph in Wassinglee, whereas the wardship of the lands and heir of the said Ralph in co. HUNTINGDON. Return of the treasurer and barons (undated).

Having examined the rolls of the exchequer they find that the said Ralph held of the king in chief the head of a serjeanty in Wassingle, which was sometime of Robert Malenceys, for which he was bound to find 2 footmen for forty days in the army of the king's progenitors, kings of England, in Wales to guard a small pavilion with bows and arrows, each of whom ought to have 4*d.* a day from the king for the same. Robert Passelewe, when he was appointed by King Henry III to rate alienated serjeanties, found the serjeanty of Wassingle wholly alienated, and one Walter de Wassingle, ancestor of the said Ralph, who then held the head of the serjeanty made fine for himself and his tenants for the alienation by 40*s.* yearly to be paid at the exchequer, doing to the king for the said serjeanty the service of $\frac{1}{40}$ knight's fee; by reason whereof the wardship and the marriage of the heir pertain to the king.

It was moreover found by an inquisition which they have caused to be made by the escheator that the said Ralph held certain lands &c. in Wassingle of Thomas de Luvetot by service of $\frac{1}{2}$ knight's fee.

HUNTINGDON. Inq. Monday before St. Gregory, 20 Edw. I.

Little Redesham. A messuage and 80*a.* land held of the king in chief at fee farm rendering 29*s.* 8*d.* yearly at the hundred of Wayneford. During the said wardship, one Emma, a co-heiress of the said John de Halton, died without heir of her body; which Emma held of the same John, and after her death the said bishop took seisin of her lands by reason of the wardship of the heir of the said John, and died so seised: after whose death the sub-escheator took the said wardship into the king's hand, together with the other lands &c. of the said bishop, and by his own authority delivered seisin of certain parts of the lands of the said wardship to William Wyse, the younger, who claimed a right in them.

It is not known whether the heirs of John de Burgo have made partition of his fees or not. Immediately after the death of William de Stokes, Hawis de Grelle, who is one of the heirs of John de Burgo, and Walter son of Robert, another heir, came by their bailiffs and took seisin of the manor of Wynterborn Fifheysse, but the late escheator, by his sub-escheator removed the said bailiffs from their seisin, and took the manor into the king's hand, because the said Walter son of Robert was a minor and in the king's wardship. Afterwards the manor was demised by the king's letters patent to Matthis, late the wife of William de Stokes until the lawful age of the heir of the said William de Stokes; and William Burdet for himself and Matthis his wife, was present at this inquiry and said that he had rendered seisin of the said manor to William, son and heir of William de Stokes, who now holds it.

Robert le Waleys, knight, agrees.

John le Fauconer, knight, agrees, adding that at Christmas before the said William's birth, Anne his mother was pregnant with him at Groby, with whom Sir William Mautravers was at dinner (in prandio) there, and she retired to Yoxhale where she bore the said William.

Master Adam de Leye[estre] agrees, and recollects because at the time of the birth he impleaded one Walter de Snyrston concerning the church of Walton before the justices of the Bench of King Henry, which king died at the feast of St. Edmund following.

Nicholas de Segrave the younger, in whose wardship the said William was, came not nor sent any one for him; which was signified by the escheator to the chancellor in a schedule included in the said proof (of age).

Northampton, on Monday before St. Gregory, 56 Henry III, and baptized in the baptistry of the church of Rode, and was 21 on Monday before St. Gregory last past, and this he knows because one Amice his sister was born on Saturday next before the said feast 21 years ago.

Roger de Morewell agrees, and recollects it because Isabel his kinswoman was born at the feast of the Purification next before the said feast of St. Gregory 21 years ago.

Robert le Butiler agrees, and recollects it because he lifted the said Robert from the font on Thursday after the said Monday.

William de Bosenho agrees, and recollects it because a son John was born to him on Saturday after the Translation of St. Thomas the Martyr next before the said Robert's birth, 21 years ago.

Walter Mauntel agrees, and recollects it because he was of the household of Walter Mauntel, the said Robert's father, on the day of the birth and for two years after, and at the end of the second year withdrew from that service at the feast of St. Gregory 25 (sic) years ago.

John le Frere of Couesgrave agrees, and recollects it because he was at Hamslope on Sunday before the said Monday, and there eat with Walter Mauntel, father of the said Robert, and went with him to his manor of Hertwell and stayed there until the morrow, when he heard the said Robert wailing, and his mother crying out so bitterly that he never heard such a noise before or since.

I, when Michael de Meledon came on behalf of the said Edmund, saying he believed the said John was of full age, but if the said Edmund holds any lands &c. of the inheritance of the said countess, the king ought not to restore them to the said John, for he believes his lord holds them as his free tenement.

Richard Foliot, prior of Bissemere, says that the said John was 22 on the fourth day before the feast of St. John the Baptist last, and this he knows because many years ago he heard it by the relation of Sir Robert de Hecham, rector of the church of Kestam, who at the time of the said birth was in the service of (stetit cum) the said countess, and sat at her table (fuit commensal' ejusdem).

Robert le Freman of Weston agrees, and knows it because on Wednesday after Palm Sunday, 9 Edw. CHESTER. Inq. made before William de Brichull, lieutenant of the justice of Chester on Friday after the Purification, 23 Edw. I.

When Gilbert de Briddeshale, William de Bereford and the writer, by the king's special mandate, took an inquisition at Bedeford as to the death of Henry de la Leye, Nicholas de Cernes was indicted of the death, wherefore the sheriff was ordered to take him. And the sheriff, coroners and jury testified that, immediately after committing the said felony, the said Nicholas withdrew himself and fled, wherefore the aforesaid justices ordered the sheriff to take his lands, tenements and chattels into the king's hand. Afterwards the said Nicholas came before Robert Malet and Hugh de Brandeston, assigned for the delivery of Bedford gaol, on Friday after the Exaltation of the Holy Cross, 21 Edw. I, and would not put himself on the inquisition of the country for the said death, and therefore was remitted to prison to have the penalty of the statute. His chattels were confiscated on account of his flight and his lands and tenements were taken into the king's hand by the said Gilbert &c. as aforesaid.

202. EDMUND SON AND HEIR OF NICHOLAS BARON OF STAFFORD.

Writ at the request of the said Edmund, who is in the wardship of Henry de Sancto Lamberto and Benevenue late the wife of John Ertaud, 30 July, 22 Edw. I.

* So given in the Calendar printed in 1806, and still missing.

STAFFORD. Proof of age, made at Stafford on Thursday after St. Laurence, 22 Edw. I.

Nicholas, prior of St. Thomas's by Stafford, says that the said Edmund was born at Madeleye on St. Edith's day, 15 July, 1 Edw. I, and this he knows because, when news of the birth was heard in Stafford, many rejoiced; and within two months of his birth he saw the said Edmund, who was baptized in the church of Madeleg.

Walter de Elmedon, chaplain, and rector of the church of Weston, agrees and knows it because Sir Richard de Stretton, knight, married Rose, sister of Nicholas sometime baron of Stafford and aunt of the said Edmund, who, about the feast of St. Edith before the birth of the said Edmund, bore a daughter Joan, who was 22 years old at the feast of St. Edith last; moreover, the said Edmund was born on the feast of St. Edith next after the eyre of Sir Ralph de Hyngham and his fellows in co. Stafford in the summer before the death of King Henry III.

Roger de Pywelesdon, knight, agrees, for he remembers that the said Edmund was born on the feast of St. Edith after the eyre of the said Ralph in co. Salop, which was at Michaelmas before the death of King Henry III; he likewise says that Nicholas the father sent him a letter to come to Madeleg to lift the said Edmund from the font and that hastening to come he found the boy baptized.

Henry de Cressewall, knight, agrees.

Hugh de Weston, knight, agrees, and adds that soon after the birth the said Nicholas came to his house at Weston and told him that he had a son.

William Trumwyn, knight, agrees with Hugh de Weston.

Robert de Pype, knight, agrees.

William de Staff(ord), knight, agrees, for he remembers that the said Edmund was born on the feast of St. Edith after the death of King Henry III, adding that he himself was at Madeleg on the morrow of the birth of the said Edmund and saw him before he was baptized.

William de Wrottesle agrees, adding that servants of the baron of Stafford on their way from Madeleye to Wotton on the morrow of the birth of the said Edmund came to the house of Hugh de Wrottesle his father and brought news of the birth.

Robert le Marschall agrees, and knows it because Gilbert le Marschall his father died sixteen years ago at the feast of the Purification last, and then it was commonly said that the said Edmund was 4 years old at the feast of St. Edith before; and he himself was of the household of Nicholas the father.

Hugh de Chaulden agrees with William de Staff(ord), and says that he was present at Madeleye when the said Edmund was baptized.

Robert Gerveyse agrees with Hugh de Weston, because at the feast of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist before the birth of the said Edmund he demised a meadow in Pobbemor for 21 years to William de Aspeley and the term expired at the said feast last.

Memorandum by the escheator that he warned Henry de Sancto Lamberto at Maddeleye, to be present, whose bailiff came to the inquiry and had nothing to say why the king should not restore the lands &c. to the said Henry if of full age, and the said Benevenue was warned at Wotton and came not nor sent anyone.

Writ to the escheator, whereas it has been testified to the king that the manor of Gorgennou and the land of Meghughecoyt, whereof the said Lewis dowered Sibyl his wife at the church door when he married her as is said, exceed the value of her dower of all his lands &c., he is commanded to take all the said lands &c. into the king's hand, and cause to be assigned to the said Sibyl her reasonable dower, according to law &c., 18 Aug. 23 Edw. I.

Memorandum. By reason of these two mandates the escheator caused all the said lands &c. to be extended at 53*l.* 7*s.* 1*d.*, whereof Lady Hawis late the wife of Griffin de la Pole receives in dower 8 marks yearly, and on 26 September at Acton Burnel he delivered the wardship of two parts thereof to the aforesaid Joan, together with the remaining third part until the aforesaid Sibyl shall sue.

213. LUCY DAUGHTER AND HEIR OF ROBERT DE THWENG alias DE TUENG' and kinswoman and heir of Marmaduke de Thweng.

Writ to the escheator to take the proof of age of the said Lucy, warning her guardians to be present, 28 Oct. 22 Edw. I.

YORK. Proof of age, taken at Scelton in Clyveland, on the morrow of the Epiphany, 23 Edw. I.

The jury say that the said Lucy was born at Kilton in Clyveland on Friday before Palm Sunday, 7 Edw. I., and on Palm Sunday in the same year was baptized in the chapel of St. Peter in the same town by Alan, chaplain of Sir Marmaduke de Tueng [alias de Tweng] in the presence of Sir Richard de Tueng, Peter Marescall, Richard le Estywur [alias le Estivor], lady Lucy the wife of Marmaduke de Tueng and Margery de Brus,

William le Latimer who held lands &c. of the said Lucy's inheritance, being called did not come, but Robert Bussel his bailiff came and said nothing why the same should not be restored to her.

William de Layburn and Walter de Rokeslee did not come because they hold nothing of the inheritance of the said Lucy in the county.

Writ (ad melius inquirendum), the previous inquisition being insufficient because it makes no mention of the age of the said Lucy nor whether William de Layburn and Walter de Rokeslee, who held lands &c. of the inheritance by the king's commission, were warned to be present, 22 Jan. 23 Edw. I.

[YORK.] Proof of age, taken at Kyrkbrun on Thursday after St. Gregory, 23 Edw. I.

The jury say that the said Lucy was born at Kylton on Friday before Palm Sunday, 7 Edw. I, was baptized the Sunday following (as above), was 15 years of age on Friday before Palm Sunday, 22 Edw. I, and will be 16 on Friday before Palm Sunday, 23 Edw. I.

William de Layburn, being warned, came not; Walter de Rokesley was warned and Walter de Throkyng his attorney came and said that although William de Layburn, to whom the king had committed the wardship of the manor of Kyrkbrunn until the lawful age of the heir of Robert de Tweng, had committed the same to Walter de Rokesley, who for two years had peaceful seisin, yet on Monday before St. Martin, 21 Edw. I. the aforesaid Lucy, Thomas le Latimer and others unknown, ejected him and took the issues of the manor until the quinzaine of the Purification following in contempt of the king and to the said William's damage of 60*l.*; on which day Walter was re-seised by the king's writ, and remained in seisin until Thursday before St. Bartholomew, 22 Edw. I, when William son of William Latymer, Lucy his wife, Thomas Latymer and others unknown violently ejected him, and took all the issues &c. until the octave of St. Michael following, to his damage of 20*l.* &c., when the said Walter was re-seised by the king's writ: on the morrow he was violently ejected by the said William and Lucy and others, who took all the issues until the feast of St. Martin following to his damage of 30*l.*, when he was re-seised by the king's writ by the escheator and by view of William de Middleton, the king's bailiff, and others. He remained so seised until Friday before St. Nicholas, 23 Edw. I. when several persons unknown from the towns of Skamston and Kyrkbrunn, on behalf of the said William and Lucy, entered by force and broke the doors of the hall and grange, took his corn and goods and ejected him and beat and ill-treated Walter de Throkyng, his attorney. Wherefore he says, the lands &c., of the inheritance of the said Lucy ought not to be restored to her, until they have satisfied the king for the contempt, and the said Walter for his loss. The said William and Lucy are still in seisin of the manor.

C. Edw. I. File 69. (14.)

214. HENRY SON AND HEIR OF HENRY DE PERCY.

SUSSEX. Proof of age of the said Henry, who says he is of full age and was born at Petteworthe, and seeks his lands &c. which are in the wardship of the executors of the testament of, the late Queen Eleanor the king's mother, and of the executors of the testament of John de Vesey; whereupon the king gave him a day to prove his age before the king, viz. from Easter in 15 days, and the sheriff was commanded to summon jurors and warn the said executors to be present, but did nothing, wherefore he is in mercy, and was again commanded to summon jurors on the morrow of the Ascension, and warn Anthony bishop of Durham and other the executors of John de Vesey to be present &c. And afterwards on the morrow of the Ascension, 22 [Edw. I], the sheriff of York was commanded to warn the bailiffs of the executors of the said Queen Eleanor to be present; who came not, but Richard de Bretteville said for the king that the lands ought not yet to be restored to the said heir because he had not yet satisfied for his marriage; and on the same day the sheriff of Sussex warned the said Anthony bishop of Durham &c., who came not; wherefore the examination of the said proof was proceeded with, saving the king's right concerning the marriage.

Hamo Bonet, knight, aged 60, says he only knows of the said Henry's age by the report of the country, which testifies that Henry his father died in the time of King Henry, and the said Henry was born about the feast of the Annunciation after King Henry's death.

Henry de Lymis, knight, 60, says the said Henry was 21 at the feast of the Annunciation last, and this he knows because he has a son William, born at the feast of the Purification next following, who is 20 and more, and the said Henry was born at Pettworth.

Hugh de Cumbe, 36, says the said Henry is 21, and knows it because the said Henry's father died at the feast of St. John in the autumn before the death of King Henry who granted the wardship of John the said Henry's brother. The same Henry was then in his mother's womb, and was born at the feast of the Annunciation after the said king's death at Pettworth, and baptized in the church there.

Henry King's son (filius Regis), aged 40, dwelling at Wotleworth, 2 leagues from Pettworth, agrees from the common report of the country.

John Gundevill, aged 50, dwelling in the said parish, agrees, and knows it because in the third year after the said Henry's birth he married a wife; also by the death of King Henry; and he was born and baptized in the same parish &c.

John de Codeham, of the present king's age, dwelling 2 leagues from Petworth, agrees, and knows it by the death of King Henry, and because he was in the service of Henry Tregoz, and bore a present from his lord to the mother of the said Henry, then lying in his cradle.

John de Perham, who is of the present king's age and dwells 3 leagues from Petworth, agrees, and says he (the heir) is 21 years and 11 weeks (old), and this he knows by the death of King Henry.

Robert de Howych, aged 50, dwelling 10 leagues from Pettewrth, agrees, and knows it by the death of King Henry, and because he has a daughter Emma, who was born on the 3rd day after the birth of the said heir, and is now 21 and more.

Robert de Clympefolde, aged 36, agrees, and knows it by the death of King Henry and the common report of the country.

Henry Attefeld, aged 40, dwelling 8 leagues from Petteworth, agrees, and knows it well because he married his wife in the year the said Henry's father died.

John Hokhurst, aged 36, (dwelling) 6 leagues from Petteworth, agrees, and knows it by the common report of the country.

William de Bergham Wyk, 40, (dwelling) 8 leagues from Petteworth, agrees for the same reason.

John le Rus, aged 40, dwelling at Waring 8 leagues from Petteworth, says the like, for he had a son John who was born at Christmas after King Henry's death, and is now 22 and more.

John le Melsher (?), 60, agrees, and knows it because he married his wife 7 years before King Henry's death.

William Musard agrees, and knows it by King Henry's death and the report of the country.

Hugh de Bodington agrees, and knows it because he was in the wardship of the said Henry's mother.

William Trotemenn (?) agrees, and knows it from one Emma who was the said Henry's nurse, dwelling in his town; and he was present at the purification of the said Henry's mother.

The aforesaid proof was sent to the king's chancery. And let the heir satisfy the king for his marriage &c. [Enrolled on the Coram Rege Roll, Easter, 22 Edw. I. No. (140).]

Balihewyl, Baliotire and Balihamund. The king enfeoffed John Walhopp of 5 carucates of land for 30*l.* of land, to hold of the king in chief by service of a knight; after whose death the same descended to Eleanor and Margaret his daughters and heirs, whose wardship Sir William de Dodyngezeles had by the king's gift; but after the death of the said Eleanor they descended to the said Margaret, who died seized thereof under age, and were then worth only 15*l.* by reason of wars and accidents; she held no other lands.

William de Walhopp who now claims the said lands was brother of John Walhopp aforesaid and is the lawful and next heir of the said Margaret, and of full age.

Memorandum (undated). The treasurer and barons say that these lands were originally of the king's demesne and after the death of Eleanor and Margaret, daughters and heirs of the aforesaid John, they were taken into the king's hand to the king's use by the treasurer and barons of the exchequer of Dublin, who hold them until they shall have a writ to deliver them.

of the said Simon with the consent of William de Bello Campo his father, of the heirs of the barony of Bedford.

As for the heirs of the said barony, Roger, aged 30 and more, son of Maud de Moubray sister of the said Simon, Joan the wife of Ralph Paynel, aged 30, daughter of Ela sister of the said Simon, Isabel the wife of Simon de Pateshulle, aged 24, daughter of Ida daughter of the same Ela, and Elizabeth the wife of John de Horbur', aged 34, daughter of the same Ela, are parceners of the inheritance with the heirs of the body of Beatrice sometime sister of the said Simon. This Beatrice was married first to Thomas son of Otto, who had by her a son named Otto, now deceased, and a daughter named Maud now aged 26 years and the wife of John Botetourte: after the death of the said Thomas she was married to Sir William de Montecanyso of Edwardstone who had by her a son named William, who if he survives, as the jury believe, is 12 years of age and more. And because the aforesaid Otto survived his mother Beatrice, the jury are doubtful whether her heir by her first or second husband is her heir of the barony, to whom with the other heirs aforesaid the said manor ought to revert.

Mandate under the privy seal, to John de Langeton, chancellor, to receive by attorney the fealty of John Botetourte, who married Maud kinswoman and one of the heirs of Simon de Bello Campo, for her pourparty of the manor of Wutton, and to cause the same to be delivered to him, the king having postponed his homage due for the same until his return from Gascony, where he is on the king's service, 1 Feb. 24 Edw. I.

427. RALPH SON AND HEIR OF THOMAS JOCELYN.

ESSEX. Proof of age taken before the king at Westminster at the end of 25 and the beginning of 26 Edw. I.

Whereas the said Ralph son and heir of Thomas Jocelyn, deceased, whose lands &c. came into the king's hand by the forfeiture of Adam de Stratton, who had the wardship by the demise of Humphrey de Bohun, earl of Hereford and Essex, says that he is of full age and seeks the lands &c. which are in the hand of William de Hamelton by the king's grant, and has been given a day on the octave of St. Michael to prove his age, the sheriff was bidden to summon jurors and to warn the said William, which he did : the parties appeared and the said William gave no reason for delaying the proof.

Ralph de Merk, aged 40 years, dwelling at Rothing two leagues from Schelewe where the said Ralph [Jocelyn] was born, says that the latter is of full age, to wit 21 years old on the day of St. Lucy the Virgin last, and that he was baptized at Wylyngdale on the fourth day after his birth. He is his godfather and gave him his baptismal name and lifted him from the font ; and he has a son named Thomas born the year after the said Ralph who will be 21 years of age at Christmas next.

John Den, aged 50 years, dwelling at Fifhid two leagues from Schelewe agrees, and knows it because he has a daughter named Agnes who was born nearly two years before the said Ralph, who is now 23 years of age, and the nurse who suckled her went from his house to suckle the said Ralph ; and at that time he was verderer of that country, and he was at the feast of the purification of the said Ralph's mother.

Hugh son of Michael, aged 50 years, dwelling at Stanford three leagues from Schelewe, agrees, and knows it because Michael his father died on St. Stephen's day next after the said birth and since this death 22 years have elapsed ; and he has a daughter, Agnes, who was born a year before the said Ralph, and will be 22 years of age at the feast of St. Lucy next.

William son of Robert, aged 46 years, dwelling at Writel half a league from Schelewe, agrees, and knows it because he has an elder son named Robert who was born at the feast of St. Martin before the birth of the said Ralph, and will be 22 years of age at the feast of St. Martin next ; and his wife was purified on the same day of St. Lucy on which the said Ralph was born, and the said Ralph's father was at his house for the feast.

John de Boweles, aged 50 years and more, dwelling at Schelewe Boweles three furlongs (quarentenas) from Schelewe where the said Ralph was born, agrees, and knows it because he has a son named Adam who was born at Whitsunday next after [the said] Ralph's [birth], and will be

22 years of age at Whitsunday next ; and he was servant of Ralph's father in Schelewe and left his service at Michaelmas next before the said Ralph's birth, and this was 22 years ago last Michaelmas.

Peter Maunsard, aged 40 years, dwelling at Fifhide one league from Schelewe, agrees, and knows it because he was server (clericus deserviens) of the vicar of Wilinhall and was present serving at the baptismal service of the said Ralph ; the baptizing priest was called Nicholas, and the godfathers were Ralph de Merk and William de La...le.

Peter de Marenny, aged 36 years, dwelling at Fifhide one league from Schelewe, agrees, and knows it because he had a son named Thomas at the feast of St. Nicholas next before the birth of the aforesaid heir, who will be 22 years of age at that feast next ; and he was at the purification of the said heir's mother.

William son of Richard, aged 46 years, dwelling at Schelewford half a league from Schelewe, agrees, and knows it because on the same day of St. Lucy he came to the father of the said Ralph to speak with him and was told on his way that the said Thomas had a son, to wit the said Ralph ; and he married his wife a year after and that was 21 years ago.

Henry Ridel, aged 40 years, dwelling at Stanford three leagues from Schelewe, agrees, and knows it because he has a son named Thomas who was born eight days after the said Ralph, and will be 22 years of age on the octave of St. Lucy next.

Philip Parker (Parcarius), aged 46 years, dwelling at Stanford three leagues from Schelewe, agrees, and knows it because he has a daughter named Christiana born at the feast of St. Katharine before the birth of the said Ralph, who will be 22 years of age at the said feast next ; and he himself was for a long time servant (famulus) of the aforesaid Thomas.

William de Molinis, aged 46 years, dwelling at Godynestre a league and a half from Schelewe, agrees, and knows it because at the feast of St. Michael next it will be 22 years since he first came into Essex and the said Ralph was born on the feast of St. Lucy following ; and he was at the feast of the purification of the said Ralph's mother, and that was after he came to Essex.

John Pedeleuere, aged 45 years, dwelling at Blaunche Roynge two leagues from Schelewe, agrees, and knows it because he has a brother named William, born on the same day as the said Ralph, who will be 22 years of age on the feast of St. Lucy next : he was also at the feast of the purification of the said Ralph's mother.

And because the aforesaid Ralph has sufficiently proved his age before the king and appears by the look of his body to be of full age, to wit 21 years, let him have seisin of the lands &c. of his inheritance, and let this record be sent to the chancellor.

C. Edw. I. File 82. (4.)

428. RALPH DE GOUSHULL.

Writ of certiorari super modo et causa capcionis concerning the lands held by the said Ralph on the day of his death, 12 Feb. 25 Edw. I.

YORK. Return by the escheator. The tenements were taken into the king's hand through the death of Peter de Goushull, father of the said Ralph, in the time of Thomas de Normanvill, sometime escheator, because the said Peter held lands of the king in chief of the barony of Holderness. Afterwards the present escheator received a writ to restore the wardship of the lands &c. late of the said Peter in Little Coldon to Eustace de Hacche, to whom the king had committed the wardship, until the lawful age of the said Peter's heir, who died a minor; which writ he executed. Afterwards he received another writ that a certain inquisition made by Thomas de Normanvill was insufficient, because he made no mention what lands the said Ralph held of the king as of the crown, or of an honour or barony, and he made inquisition thereon and returned it to the chancery. Afterwards in execution of another writ he assigned dower to Hawis late the wife of the said Ralph, she having taken oath not to marry without the king's licence. Then he received a writ of diem clausit extremum after the death of the same Ralph; in execution whereof he took an inquisition and returned it to the chancery; by reason whereof he took as well the lands assigned to the said Hawis as the other lands which were of the said Ralph into the King's hand.

(See No. 209 and Vol. II. Nos. 607 and 822.)

C. Edw. I. File 82. (5.)

429. JOHN SON AND HEIR OF JOHN DE MARES.

Proof of age made before the king on the octave of the Purification, 25 Edw. I.

NORTHAMPTON. Whereas the said John says he is of full age and has petitioned the king for the restoration of the lands of his inheritance, which are in the wardship of Master Peter de Lek by the king's grant, and a day has been given him to prove his age; the sheriff was bidden to summon jurors and to warn the said Peter to be present, who did not come, and being warned again on the octave of St. Hilary last past did not come; wherefore let the proof of age be proceeded with.

Peter Barry, aged 50 years and more, dwelling half a league from Mares Assheby, says that the said John son of John was 21 years of age on Christmas day last, and was born at Mares Assheby and baptized in the church there; and this he knows because he himself has a son named Peter born at the feast of St. Andrew before the birth of the said John, who was 21 years of age at the feast of St. Andrew last past; moreover the mother of the said John was purified on the Sunday before the Purification 21 years ago.

William Ketel, aged 50 years and more, dwelling a league from Mares Assheby, agrees, and knows it because he had a son named John, now dead, who was born four days after the said John son of John, and would have completed 21 years last Christmas if he had lived; he also knows it from the saying of William vicar of the aforesaid church, who baptized the said John (son of John).

Hugh son of Hugh de Wyluby, aged 50 years and more, dwelling a league from Mares Assheby, agrees, and knows it because Hugh his father died at the feast of St. Michael before the birth of the said John, and he paid relief for his land (terram suam relevavit) at Christmas following, which relief was 21 years ago last Christmas; he knows moreover by the saying of Alice the wife of William Elys of Assheby, godmother of the aforesaid John.

Michael Auncel of Wyluby, aged 40 years and more, dwelling a league from Mares Assheby, agrees, and knows it because he has a daughter Alice, who was born at the feast of St. Thomas the apostle before the birth of the aforesaid John, and was 21 years of age at the feast of St. Thomas last; and moreover he knows the facts by the saying of Alice godmother of the said John and of one John son of Thomas his godfather.

Geoffrey de Catteworth, aged 38 years and more, dwelling a league from Mares Assheby, agrees, and knows it because on the morrow of the Epiphany next after the birth of the aforesaid John he married Alice his wife, by whom he had a daughter Lecia who was 14 years of age at the feast of St. Mark last, and the said John on the day of her birth was six years of age.

Robert Coleman, aged 50 years and more, dwelling in Mares Assheby, agrees, and knows it because he was in the church (at the hour of the ?) birth of the said John and there heard of his birth; moreover he has a brother Roger who was born a month . . . and was 21 years old a month before Christmas last; and (he knows it from) the aforesaid godparents, and by the relation of the country.

Walter son of Ranulph, aged 45 years and more, dwelling a furlong (quarentenam) from Mares Assheby, agrees, and knows it because on Whitsunday before the birth of the aforesaid John he married Alice his wife, and that was 21 years ago last Whitsunday; moreover he was in the aforesaid church at the hour of the birth of the said John and there heard of his birth.

Richard son of John de Assheby, aged 50 years and more, dwelling in Mares Assheby, agrees, and knows it because at the feast of St. Andrew before the birth of the aforesaid John he acquired a virgate of land in Assheby from John the father for a term of years and at the feast of St. Andrew last 21 years had elapsed.

Richard son of Robert de Assheby, aged 50 years and more, dwelling in Mares Assheby, agrees, and knows it because that he has a sister Alice who was born at Whitsunday before the birth of the said John and she was 21 years of age last Whitsunday.

John de Hampton, aged 40 years and more, dwelling a league from Mares Assheby, agrees, and knows it because he has a nephew John, who was born four days before the birth of the aforesaid John, and was 21 years of age before last Christmas.

Geoffrey Hykun of Wyluby, aged 40 years and more, dwelling a league from Mares Assheby, agrees, and knows it because he saw the said John in his cradle and has seen him every year since; and also by the talk of the country.

Adam son of Peter of Wyluby, aged 40 years and more, dwelling a league from Mares Assheby, agrees, and knows it because he had an uncle, John, who died at the feast of St. Michael before the birth of the aforesaid John without heir of himself, and his lands &c. descended to the said Adam as his nephew and next heir, and that was 21 years ago last Michaelmas.

And because the said John son of John has sufficiently proved his age and appears by the look of his body to be of full age, let him have seisin of the lands of his inheritance, and let the record be sent to the king's chancellor.

430. MARY DAUGHTER OF WILLIAM DE MOHUN.

Proof of age of Mary, younger daughter and one of the heirs of William de Mohun, taken before the king at Westminster on the octave of Holy Trinity, 25 Edw. I.

WILTS. Whereas John de Myriet, who married the said Mary, says that she is of full age and seeks the restoration of her lands &c. which are in the wardship of the executors of the testament of Robert son of John, the executors of the testament of John de Knovill, Maud de Mortuo Mari, and John de Galmeton, by the demise of Eleanor sometime queen of England, the king's mother, and by the king's grant, and the king has given the said Mary the octave of Holy Trinity for proving her age, the sheriff was ordered to provide jurors and to warn the executors of the will of John de Knovill to be present ; but they did not come.

SOUTHAMPTON. Order was given to the sheriff to warn the said executors to be present, but they did not come.

DEVON. Order was given to the sheriff to warn John de Galmeton and the escheator south of Trent to be present, but they did not come.

GLOUCESTER. Order was given to the sheriff to warn Maud de Mortuo Mari to be present, but she did not come.

BEDFORD. Order was given to the sheriff to warn the aforesaid executors to be present, but they did not come.

DORSET. Order was given to the sheriff to warn John de Galmeton to be present, but he did not come. Wherefore let the proof aforesaid be taken.

Nicholas Burdon, knight, aged 28 years, says that the said Mary was born in Mildehale and was 14 years of age at the feast of the Conception last past : and this he knows because two years before her birth the king seized his body and lands by way of wardship after the death of his father, and that is 18 years ago.

Roger de Stotescumbe, aged 35 years, dwelling half a league from Mildehale, agrees, and knows it because he had a son, now deceased, named Nicholas, born at the feast of St. John the Baptist next following, who if he had been alive would now be 14 years old ; and in the year that the said Mary was born he himself returned to England from beyond the seas, and that is 14 years ago and more.

John de Berwyk, aged 40 years and more, dwelling five leagues from Mildenhale, says that the said Mary was born at Mildenhale and baptized in the church there, and that she was 14 years of age at the feast of the Conception : and this he knows because his father died in the year after the birth of the said Mary, and nearly 14 years have passed since his father's death.

John de Hardington, aged 50 years, dwelling two leagues from Mildenhale, agrees, and knows it because he was present at her baptism and the queen, the king's mother, lifted her from the font and named her Mary because she was born on the eve of the Conception of the Blessed Mary : and he had a son named Adam who died before the birth of the said Mary, and he is sure that 14 years have passed since.

Nicholas Dymars, aged 50 years and more, dwelling two leagues from Mildenhale, agrees, and knows it because in the year of the birth of the said Mary he obtained a piece of land from his uncle, whereof a fine was levied in the Bench in the same term.

Roger Page, aged 50 years and more, dwelling a league from Mildenhale, agrees, and knows it because on the same day of the Conception he gave in marriage his wife's sister Alice and was at her nuptials, since when 14 years have passed and more.

John atte Mere, aged 60 years and more, dwelling a league from Middelhale (sic), agrees, and knows it because he was in Mildenhale when the said Mary was baptized, and he and his wife were at the feast when her mother was purified.

William Waryn, aged 30 years and more, agrees, and knows it because at Easter after the birth of the said Mary he himself had a daughter named Denise, now dead, who if she had lived would be 14 years old.

Peter de Polton, aged 25 years and more, agrees, and knows it because he was present at the baptism and Eleanor the king's mother raised her from the sacred font, and one Ralph, who was the same queen's chaplain, baptized her; he says also that in the same year a little before Whitsunday he married Cecily his wife, who is yet living, and since then he is sure (expertus) 14 years have passed and more.

Reginald Wace of Polton, aged 36 years and more, agrees, and knows it because on the Sunday after the Purification he took his journey for Santiago on pilgrimage, since when 14 years and more have elapsed; he says that queen Eleanor lifted her from the sacred font.

William Jonkyn, aged 40 years and more, agrees, and knows it because soon after Easter in the year in which the said Mary was born he married Isabel his wife; and he was bailiff to the queen the king's mother, who, with Cecily de Bello Campo, was godmother of the said Mary.

William le Chaumberleyn of Vroxfeld, aged 30 years and more, agrees, and knows it because William his own father died on the morrow of the purification of the said Mary's mother, and was buried in the cemetery of the church of Froxfeld, three leagues from Mildenhale.

And because she has sufficiently proved her age and it appears by her look that she is of full age, viz. 14 years and more, let her have seisin of the lands of her inheritance and let this record be sent to the chancellor.

C. Edw. I. File 82. (7.)

431. ELEANOR DAUGHTER OF WILLIAM DE MOHUN.

Proof of age of Eleanor daughter and one of the heirs of William de Mohun, taken before the king at Westminster, 25 Edw. I.

DEVON. Whereas John de Carreu [alias Karru], who married the said Eleanor, says she is of full age, and has petitioned for the restoration of her lands &c. which are in the wardship of the king, and John de Galmeton, the executors of the testament of Robert son of John, and the executors of the testament of John de Knovill, by the king's grant, and the king has given the said Eleanor the octave of St. John the Baptist for proving her age, the sheriff was ordered to provide jurors, and to warn Malcolm de Harle the escheator and John de Galmeton, who did not come.

SOUTHAMPTON. Similar order given to the sheriff to warn the executors of Robert son of John, who did not come.

BEDFORD. Similar order given to the sheriff to warn the same executors, who did not come.

WILTS. Similar order given to the sheriff to warn the same executors, who did not come. Wherefore let the proof aforesaid be taken.

John de Asshele of Walsheburn, knight, aged 60 years and more, distant three leagues from Stokefleming, says that the said Eleanor was 16 years of age at the Gule of August last, and was born at Stokefleming and baptized in the church of that place; and this he knows because there was an eyre of the justices in Devon in the king's 8th year, and the said Eleanor was born the year following; he was at the feast on the day when her mother was purified nearly 17 years ago; her sister Mary, younger by two years, has proved her age in the king's court; and Sir Gilbert de Knovill, knight, John de Morceles and Eleanor de Fisshaker were her godparents.

Gilbert son of Stephen, knight, of Norton by Stokefleming, aged 30 years and more, agrees, for the same reasons, except that he was not at the said feast.

Henry de Rale, aged 32 years, distant six leagues from Stokefleming, agrees, and knows it by the talk of the country (patrie); because Gilbert the godfather told him; and because Mary the younger sister has proved her age.

Roger le Nonaunt, knight, aged 36 years, distant twenty leagues from Stokefleming, agrees, and remembers by the war of David brother of Llewelin, which was in the king's tenth year, in which year the said Eleanor's father died and she was born before that. He was not present at her birth or baptism, and only knew of them by the talk of the country.

Andrew de Truslok, then of Brickesham, knight, aged 60 years and more, distant three leagues from Stokefleming, agrees with the above Roger, and adds that four years before he was made a knight at 'la Heved' by Sir Henry de Chaumbernoun.

Robert de Crues, knight, of Little Dertemue by Stokefleming, aged 60 years and more, agrees with Gilbert son of Stephen, adding that in the same year about the feast of St. Michael a daughter, named Joan, was born to him, who is now 16 years of age.

Robert de Stockeheyne, aged 40 years, agrees with Roger Nenaunt (sic), adding that he remembers because he was then clerk to the sheriff of Devon, and in the king's ninth year at the end of the eyre of the justices in the said county the pleas 'quo warranto' were adjourned to the county of Gloucester to the tenth year, in which year began the war of David &c.

Robert de Malleston, aged 50 years and more, distant four leagues from Stokefleming, agrees, and knows it because he has a son named John, now 17 years of age; and he was moreover a great friend of (multum familiar') William de Mohun the said Eleanor's father, and was every day in his house.

Thomas de Stokehull, aged 30 years, distant three leagues from Stokefleming, William de Chaumbernoun, knight, aged 40 years and more, Thomas de Rale, knight, aged 30 years, and David de Germungton, aged 30 years and more, agree.

And because the said Eleanor has sufficiently proved her age and it appears by the look of her that she is of full age, viz. 14 years old, let her have seisin &c. and let this record be sent to the chancellor.

432. ELIZABETH DAUGHTER OF JOHN DE SOTTESBROK.

Proof of age of Elizabeth daughter and one of the heirs of John de Sottesbrok, taken before the king at Westminster on the octave of St. Michael, 25 Edw. I.

BERKS. Whereas the said Elizabeth says she is of full age, and has sought for the lands &c. of her inheritance, which are in the king's wardship, to be restored to her, and the octave of St. Michael has been given to her to prove her age, the sheriff was ordered to warn the escheator this side Trent to be present, who being present in court says nothing why the said proof ought to be delayed, therefore let the proof proceed.

Bartholomew de Arle, aged 40 years and more, distant six leagues from Sottesbrok, says that the said Elizabeth was born at Sottesbrok and baptized in the church there, and she will be 16 years old about the feast of [St.] Nicholas next; and this he knows because, when John Sotesbrok her father died and the manor of Sotesbrok came into the king's hand by way of wardship, he was sub-escheator in the county and took an inquisition as to the age of the said Elizabeth, by which it was found that she was 14 years of age, and this was two years ago.

William Jurdan of Bray, distant a league from Sottesbrok, aged 40 years and more, agrees, and knows it because in the same year that the said Elizabeth was born, he brought to his own home his wife Sibyl about the feast of all Saints before the said Elizabeth was born; and he was present at the feast of the purification of her mother in Christmas week following.

John de Bentfeld, distant two leagues from Sottesbrok, aged 40 years and more, agrees, and knows it because John, the said Elizabeth's father, impleaded him in the Bench at Westminster by writ of trespass eighteen years ago, and afterwards at Michaelmas sixteen years ago they were agreed, and in the same year on the morrow of St. Nicholas the aforesaid Elizabeth was born, and he was present at the aforesaid feast on the day when her mother arose from childbed (de puerperio relevavit).

Gilbert Saddok of Blaunche Wautham by Sottesbrok, aged 40 years and more, agrees, and knows it because in the same year he first served John father of the said Elizabeth and bought a virgate of land in the same town, and two years later gave his own daughter Christiana in marriage, now 14 years ago.

Peter Terri of Wautham by Sottesbrok, aged 40 years and more, agrees, and says that he was at the feast of the said Elizabeth's mother, and he has a niece born in the same year who has always lived in his house, by whose age he remembers that of the said Elizabeth.

William Terry of Wautham by Sottesbrok, aged 40 years and more, agrees, and says that he was present at the aforesaid feast, and has a daughter Emma born on St. Nicholas' day, older by one day than the said Elizabeth, who was born on the morrow, and she will be 16 years of age on the day of St. Nicholas next.

Robert Cruchefeld of Bray by Sottesbrok, aged 40 years and more, agrees, and knows it because in the year when the said Elizabeth was born his own wife Christiana died, and was buried at Bray on Christmas eve 16 years ago next Christmas.

Simon Pypard of Henton, distant two leagues from Stotesbrok (sic), aged 40 years and more, agrees, and knows it because he had a son John, who died 5 years ago, who was born at the feast of St. John the Baptist in the same year as the said Elizabeth.

John de Judon of Wokyngham, distant two leagues from Stotesbrok (sic), aged 30 years and more, agrees, and knows it because in the year when the said Elizabeth was born he took a certain land to farm from one William Terry for 16 years, which term expired at the feast of St. Michael last, when the lease (scriptum de eadem firma) was broken (ruptum).

John Bythewode of Hurst, distant a league and a half from Stotesbrok, aged 40 years and more, agrees, except that he was not present at the aforesaid feast, but he well recollects because he married his own wife Alice, who is still alive, at the feast of St. Hilary later in the same year.

Edmund Burnel of Wyndessore, distant five leagues from Stotesbrok, aged 35 years and more, agrees, and knows it because he was then in the town of Stotesbrok being brought up (nurtitus) in the house of one Ralph Smewyne; he has also a sister named Alice, born in the same year two days after the said Elizabeth, who will be 16 years old on the third day after St. Nicholas next.

Thomas Syward, of Redding, distant four leagues from Stotesbrok, aged 40 years and more, agrees, for he was present on the day she was born and baptized, and recollects because in the same year Sir Richard Fuk' gave his (Thomas') son Robert certain land in Arle.

And because the said Elizabeth has sufficiently proved her age and appears by the look of her to be of full age, viz. 14 years, let her have seisin of the lands &c. of her inheritance, and let this record be sent to the chancellor.

[BEDFORD.] Inq. made at Sefford on Friday after SS. Peter and Paul, 25 Edw. I.

C. Edw. I. File 82. (9.)

434. JOHN SON AND HEIR OF JOHN CORDEBOEF.

Writ to the escheator to take the proof of age of the said John who was born at Buxlowe, co. Suffolk, and baptized in the church there, as is said, 20 Oct. 25 Edw. I.

SUFFOLK. Proof of age made at Buckeslowe on Wednesday the feast of St. Edmund, King and Martyr, 26 Edw. I. commencing.

Henry Portman, aged 60 years, says the said John was born on the day of St. Francis, 2 Edw. I. at the hall of Buckeslowe, co. Suffolk, from which day 23 years have elapsed; he was baptized in the baptistry of the church of Freston, and John then prior of Snape lifted him from the font; and this he recollects because on the said day of St. Francis his niece Juliana bore two sons Thomas and John, who were 23 years of age on that feast last past.

Thomas Slene, aged 100 years, agrees, and remembers it because there was discord between John Fraunceys, father of the said John, and Reginald then rector of the church of Buckeslowe, at the time of the said John's birth, which was ended 23 years ago at the feast of St. Francis last, for which cause he was baptized at Freston and not at Buckeslowe.

Reginald Knot, aged 50 years, agrees, and recollects it because one Maud his mother's sister, bore a daughter Basilia about the said feast of St. Francis, who was 23 years of age about that feast last past.

John Kerrych, aged 40 years, agrees, and recollects it because about the said feast his mother bore his brother Richard, who was 23 at that feast last past.

Thomas Kelnehod, aged 44 years, agrees, and well recollects because at the time of the said John's birth he was in the service of Reginald then rector of Buckeslowe, between whom and John Fraunceis, father of the said John Cordebuef, there was great discord.

Thomas Warde, aged 50 years, agrees, and is certain of it because Avelina his sister was born on the morrow of the said John's birth, and was 23 years of age on the morrow of St. Francis last.

John Knot, aged 42 years, agrees, and well recollects because Alice his mother was then serving Joan mother of the said John Cordebuef at Buckeslowe, and was present when he was born, and has often recited in witness's presence the years from the birth.

Endorsed: Before the lord chancellor.

C. Edw. I. File 82. (10.)

435. THOMAS SON AND HEIR OF THOMAS DE BEKERING.

Proof of age of the said Thomas, taken before the king at Westminster, 25 Edw. I (much defaced).

LINCOLN. Whereas the said Thomas says he is of full age and seeks the lands of his inheritance which are in the wardship of Walter de Huntercumbe and William de Hamelton by the king's grant, the sheriff was ordered to provide jurors for the quinzaine of St. John the Baptist.

NORTHUMBERLAND. The sheriff was ordered to warn the said Walter to be present, but he came not.

HUNTINGDON. The sheriff was ordered to warn William de Hamelton to be present, but he came not. Wherefore let the said proof be taken &c.

Nicholas Tuchet of Heynton, distant two leagues from Beking, says that the said Thomas was born at Beking and baptized in the church there, and was 21 years old at Christmas last, and he knows it because the mother of the said Thomas told him 15 years ago that the said Thomas was then 6 years old.

William ad Portam of Houton by Beking, aged 40 years, agrees, and knows it because 21 years ago at the last feast of St. Michael he bought some land at Waggeby, and the said Thomas was born at the feast of St. Thomas the Apostle next following.

Andrew of Tyrrington by Bekeringg, aged 30 years and more, agrees, and knows it because he has a sister Rose who was born about three weeks after the said Thomas.

Gilbert son of Thomas of Houton by Bekering, aged 40 years, agrees, and knows it because he has a son Roger who was born a fortnight after the said Thomas.

John de la Grene of Bekering, aged 60 years, agrees, adding that he was present in the town when the said Thomas was born and baptized, and he has a son Nicholas who was born about the feast of St. Peter ad Vincula before the birth of the said Thomas.

Robert Fraunceys of Houton by Bekeringg, aged 30 years, agrees, and knows it because his father Simon died 15 days before the birth of the said Thomas.

Alan de Eyvile of Wraggeby by Bekering, aged 40 years, agrees and knows it because he let some land to farm to one Adam le Pyndere for twenty years, which term expired a year and more ago.

John de Seint Poul of Langeton by Bekering, agrees, and knows it because he has a sister Denise (Dyon') who was born in the year before the said Thomas.

Richard son of Eva of Ludeford by Bekering, aged 40 years, agrees, and knows it because at Michaelmas before the birth of the said Thomas he received a certain land to farm from one Geoffrey de Raund for twenty years, which term expired two years ago.

And because the said Thomas has sufficiently proved his age and appears by the look of his body to be of full age, viz., 21 years, let him have seisin of the lands of his inheritance and let this record be sent to the chancellor.

C. Edw. I. File 82. (11.)

436. HERBERT SON AND HEIR OF JOHN DE MARISCO.

DUBLIN. Proof of age, made at Lesmecaigh, co. Dublin, before Master Thomas Cantok, chancellor, and Walter de la Haye, escheator, of Ireland, on Friday the eve of St. Matthew, 25 Edw. I. (defaced).

William le Graunt, knight, says that the said Herbert is son and heir of John de Marisco, who held of the king in chief, and was born at Polrothen, co. Dublin, and baptized in the church there, and is 21 years old at the present feast of St. Matthew; and this he knows because

John de Marisco the father died 13 years ago at Easter day last, and then the same Herbert was 8 years old ; moreover he himself had a son Henry born a year before the said Herbert, who is 22 years old.

Thomas de Rupe, knight, says that the said Herbert is of full age, and knows it because he has a son Walter who was born of St. Ca. . . . the Abbot in the same year.

Colin le Gardiner says the like, and knows it because Clada, mother of Reymund son of David who was of John de Marisco the father, died 23 years ago at Whitsunday last, and the said Herbert was born in the second year after.

John Madok says the like, and knows it because John de Marisco the father was interested in his affairs (magnas in rebus suis) and he, John Madok, heard when his heir was born.

William son of David de Portnehulle says the like, and knows it because he married Wenthlian, daughter of John de Sancto Albino, 18 years ago at the feast of St. Peter ad Vincula last, and the same Herbert was then three (?) years of age.

John son of David says the like, and knows it because he has a son Roger who was born at the feast of St. Michael in the same year as the said Herbert.

Meyler son of Roger, Geoffrey son of David, Walter Granyth, Cadogan son of Philip, Louelyn son of Meiler, John son of Reymund and Madoc de Clonasse, agree.

Memorandum that this is the third proof (probatio) of age ever made in Ireland, and always before the time of the present chancellor inquisitions used to be taken concerning age, not proofs.

C. Edw. I. File 82. (12.)

437. THOMAS SON AND HEIR OF JOHN DE VERDON.

Proof of age of the said Thomas, taken before the king a month from Easter day, 2[5] Edw. I.

YORK. Because the said Thomas says he is of full age, and has sought the lands &c. of his inheritance, the sheriff was ordered to provide a jury.

NORTHAMPTON. The sheriff was ordered to warn John de Ferariis, to whom the king had granted the wardship, and the escheator Malcolm de Harle, but neither came, wherefore let the proof of age be proceeded with.

Edmund Foliot, aged 40 years, says that the said Thomas was born at Whistan, co. York, and baptized in the church there on the fourth day after the Epiphany 21 years ago, and this he knows because he is of Handesworth, three leagues from Whytstan, and was present when the said Thomas was baptized ; moreover in the same year Thomas de Furnyvall, grandfather of the aforesaid Thomas, procured (procuravit erga) Sir Richard Folyot, father of the said Edmund, to give the said Edmund the manor of Rysun, co. Lincoln.

Thomas de Furneus, aged 40 years and more, says the like, and knows it because at that time he was constable of the castle of Sheffield, distant from Whytstan, which then belonged to Sir Thomas de Furnyvaus, his lord, grandfather of the said Thomas ; he was not present at Whytstan at the time of the birth or baptism, but news of the birth came forthwith to him at the castle, because his lord was father of Eleanor mother of the said Thomas de Verdon.

Thomas de Bosevyle, aged 40 years (quadragenarius) and more, of Derfeud, five leagues from Whytstan, says the like, and knows it because he was present with Thomas de Furnyvaus, then his lord, and lifted the aforesaid Thomas from the sacred font; and in the same year a little after the Purification he married Denise his wife, who still survives.

Robert de Bosevyle of Neuhall, six leagues from Whytstan, aged 40 years and more, says the like, and knows it because on the day aforesaid he was at a feast at Rolton at the house of Richard le Chaumberleyn, where, immediately after the birth of the said Thomas, news thereof came and the guests rejoiced greatly thereat; and his daughter Agnes was born in the same year on the eve of the Circumcision a little before the said Thomas was born.

Peter de Rodes of the neighbourhood (confinio) of Whytstan, aged 40 years and more, agrees, and knows it because he has a son Richard, now in parts beyond the sea, who was born three days after the said Thomas.

Jolland de Neuton of Whytstan, aged 40 years and more, agrees, and knows it because he has a son of the same age, and Agnes his mother lifted the said Thomas from the sacred font; at that time he was a scholar at Lincoln, and at Christmas he came home because it was vacation time, and the mother of the said Thomas then told him this (hoc ei tunc retulit).

Adam de Breretwesel of Wath, aged 26 years and more, says that the said Thomas is 21 years of age, and knows it by the testament of his father, who died in the same year a little before Whitsunday before the said Thomas was born.

William of Darnhale, two leagues from Whytstan, aged 34 years, agrees, and knows it because in the same year about the feast of St. Michael he married Dulcie his wife, who still survives.

Robert de la Barre of Whytstan, aged 40 years and more, agrees, and knows it because he was then at Whytstan and took the news of the birth to his lord Sir Thomas de Furnyvaus aforesaid, and he remembers the lapse of time because the said Sir Thomas, whose butler he then was, gave him some land immediately after for the said news, which he still holds.

Thomas de Boys of Sheffeud, four leagues from Whytstan, aged 30 years and more, agrees, and says that he was present there with his father Adam de Boys, who then served Sir Thomas de Furnyvaus, and he remembers the lapse of time because before that he was a scholar and then left the school to speak with his father, whom he found there.

Lambert of Sheffeud, five leagues from Whytstan, aged 40 years and more, agrees, and knows it because Scheffeud then belonged to Thomas de Furnyvaus, and immediately after the birth of the aforesaid Thomas de Verdon news thereof was spread (devulgatus) there and men there rejoiced greatly because his lord was father of Eleanor the mother of the said Thomas de Verdon, and he remembers the lapse of time because the church of Sheffeud was dedicated by archbishop William de Wikewan seventeen years ago, and then the said Thomas was four years old.

Adam le Kok of Scheffeud, aged 40 years and more, agrees, and knows it because he was with Sir Thomas de Furnyvaus, father of Eleanor mother of the said Thomas, and in the same year on the morrow of the Purification his own father died.

And because the said Thomas has sufficiently proved his age and appears by the look of his body to be 21 years of age, let him have seisin of the lands &c. of his inheritance, and let this record be sent to the chancellor.

C. Edw. I. File 82. (13.)

438. WALTER SON OF THOMAS DE BARKESTON.

Petition of the archbishop of York for livery of seisin of a messuage and 11*a.* land held of him by knight's service by the said Walter (undated).

Writ of certiorari de causa capcionis to the sheriff of York, 20 Oct, 25 Edw. I.

YORK. Inq. made before the sheriff at Schyrburn on the eve of St. Thomas the Apostle, 25 Edw. I.

Barkeston. The said Walter held on the day of the battle between the king of England and the Scots at Dunbar of the archbishopric of York a messuage, 11*a.* land, and other tenements in Barkeston, by homage and service of $\frac{1}{4}$ knight's fee, 15*s.* 10*d.* yearly rent, and doing suit at the court of the archbishopric at Schyrburn every three weeks. He was in the battle at Dunbar, as an enemy of the king and realm, and in aid of the Scots, wherefore the sheriff seized the said messuage &c. into the king's hand. Alice, late the wife of Thomas father of the said Walter, holds a messuage and 24*a.* land there in dower, of the inheritance of the same Walter, which ought to revert to him, had he kept to the king's fealty.

The jurors know not if the said Walter is dead, but after the said battle he adhered to the Scots and never returned to the king's fealty. If he is still alive he is with the Scots.

Endorsed : This escheat because it is of war, belongs to the king, saving the service due to the lord of the fee, because he was and is, if still alive, a public enemy of the king and realm.

Let him have it of the king's gift, although it is an escheat of war and belonged to the king. Yet this he does of special grace.

NORTHUMBERLAND. Inq. made at Newcastle upon Tyne on Tuesday after the octave of St. Hilary, 26 Edw. I.

Ellinton. Adam de Perinton [alias de Perington], father of the aforesaid Isabel, was seised in his demesne as of fee, of the manor of Ellington, which after his death descended to the said Isabel, the wife of William de Vesey, Katharine Paynelle and Letice de Kenys [alias de Keygnes] as his daughters and heirs; and afterwards the said Letice gave her whole pourparty of the said manor to her sister Isabel to hold to her and her heirs of Sir John de Ballio[lo] and his heirs.

Endorsed: Let this inquisition be amended thus—viz.—to the same effect as above, adding that because the lands of Sir John de Balliolo are in the king's hand the said Isabel now holds two parts of the manor of the king by service of two parts of a knight's fee, rendering 44*s.* 1*d.* yearly for the guard of Newcastle upon Tyne.

Writ (ad melius inquirendum) to the escheator because an inquisition taken after the death of the said William makes no mention whether his lands &c. in Elyngton were taken into the king's hand or not, nor whether he held them jointly with Isabel his wife, nor of whom they are held or by what service, 10 Feb. 26 Edw. I.

NORTHUMBERLAND. Inq. made at Seton de la Val, 2 March, 26 Edw. I.

Ellinton. The escheator took the said lands &c. into the king's hand after the death of the said William to keep until Isabel his wife should do her homage and fealty for them, and give her oath not to marry without the king's licence. The said William and Isabel held two parts of the manor, as the land and inheritance of the said Isabel, of the king, by reason of the lands &c. of John de Balliolo being in the king's hand, by service of two parts of a knight's fee, and rendering 44s. 1d. yearly at the exchequer of Newcastle upon Tyne.

Endorsed: Let this inquisition be amended thus—first let them say openly that after the death of William de Vescy two parts of the manor were taken into the king's hand: afterwards let them say distinctly and openly how much land there is and what it is worth: afterwards let them say, and they can say confidently, that the said William and Isabel did not hold those tenements conjointly, but that she was seized thereof as of her own inheritance before the said William married her, and the said William had nothing therein excepting in that he had the custody of his wife's body and lands: afterwards let them say that she held the said tenements of John de Balliolo by service of two parts of a knight's fee, and rendering 44s. 1d. for the guard of Newcastle upon Tyne, and now she holds the same of the king by the same service because the lands &c. of the said John are in the king's hand.

OXFORD. Inq. Sunday the feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross, 26 Edw. I. Mulleham alias Mulneham in the manor of Cherchehull. The meadow, worth 100*s*. yearly, is held of the heir of Philip Burnel together with the residue of the whole manor by homage and service of 1*l*. yearly. Roger de Nodariis the father gave the said meadow to Roger his son and Joan his wife and their heirs and enfeofed them jointly of the same by charter, with condition that if the said Roger the son should die before his father, the said Joan surviving, she should hold the same for life for her whole dower, but if the said Roger should survive his father, as he did, then he and the said Joan and their heirs should hold the same for ever. This meadow was extended together with the other meadows of the manor by the sheriff and afterwards by the escheator.

Writ of plenius certiorari to the escheator to enquire into all the circumstances of the tenure of the manor of Churchull by the said Roger, warning Maud late the wife of Philip Burnel, mother of his heir, to be present with the muniments concerning the manor, 11 Oct. 26 Edw. I.

OXFORD. Inq. made at Chupyngnorton, 21 Nov. 26 Edw. I. (sic).

Churchull. Roger de Whelton, son and heir of William de Whelton, in 8 Edw. I or thereabout, enfeofed Robert Burnel, late bishop of Bath and Wells, of all the service which Roger de Nodariis, brother of the said Roger de Whelton, owed him concerning the manor of Churchull, which he held of him, viz.—homage and service of 1*l*. yearly and service of 1 knight's fee, doing scutage when it should happen. Roger de Nodariis and Roger his son, did the services aforesaid to the said Robert, and after the said Robert's death to Philip Burnel, his nephew and heir; whereby the wardship of the manor pertains to Edward son and heir of the said Philip, who is now in the king's wardship.

In the time of king Henry III one Nicholas de Nodariis, ancestor of the said Roger, held the said manor of one Richard le Vernoun, ancestor of Richard le Vernoun that now is, by service of a knight's fee, and came into the wardship of the said Richard by reason of his minority, and the said Richard married his daughter Eustachia to the said Nicholas, and gave him quittance by charter of the service of a knight's fee which he owed him for the said manor; since which time neither the present Richard de Vernoun nor any of his ancestors have had any service from the manor by the hands of the said Roger or his ancestors. After the said Nicholas came into the wardship of the said Richard no heir of his was ever in wardship except Roger son of Roger son of Roger, who is now in the king's wardship as wardship of wardship by reason of the minority of Edward Burnel aforesaid.

Endorsed: This inquisition was taken in the presence of the attorney of Maud Burnel, mother of Edward son and heir of Philip Burnel, and of the executors of Roger de Nodariis, who showed muniments which sufficiently declared the right of the said heir, Richard de Vernoun being present.

Writ of certiorari to the escheator to enquire whether Roger de Nodariis deceased and Joan his wife, whom John de Harcourt has married, were enfeoffed jointly of 10*l.* land in the meadow of Milnham in the manor of Churchehull by Roger the father, or not &c. 9 July, 27 Edw. I.

OXFORD. Inq. taken at Chepyng Norton on Saturday after the Nativity of the Blessed Mary, 27 Edw. I. (defective).

Mullneham in the manor of Churchehull. The said Roger, the father, gave 10*l.* land in the said meadow to Roger his son and Joan his wife and the heirs of the said Roger the son, and enfeoffed them jointly by his charter forty days before Roger the son espoused the said Joan, and put them in seisin before the marriage, and because Roger the son was not then of full age he gave him Richard de Sancto Valerico as guardian, who had the guardianship for a long time, and delivered the same to one Master John de Sancto Valerico, and he to one Aliamus, brother of the said Roger, who demised it to Roger the father, who held it until his death as (guardian?) of the said Roger his son and Joan because the said Roger (the son) was still under age. The said 10*l.* land (were assigned?) to the said Joan by Roger the father in dower with the assent of the same (Roger at the) church gate when he espoused her, before the enfeoffment aforesaid.

. in the presence of John de Harecurt and Joan his wife; and Master Thomas de Albersbury (warned?) to be present if he wished (came) not.

483. WILLIAM SON AND HEIR OF JOHN LE MARESCHAL.SUFFOLK. Proof of age made before the king at York, a month from the day of St. Michael, 26 Edw. I.

Whereas the said William, who was born at Denham, and baptized in the church there as is said, came and said he was of full age and sought the lands &c. of his inheritance, which are in the wardship of Richard de Felmyngham, executor of John de Bohun, and Ralph de Heminhale, executor of Godfrey de Acre co-executor with the said Richard of the said John, to whom the king granted that wardship, and the king gave him a day to prove his age before the king, as abovesaid, the sheriff was commanded to summon jurors in Suffolk, and to warn the said Richard and Ralph to be present, who came not &c. let the said proof of age be taken &c.

Gerard de Wachesham, knight, aged 40, distant 6 leagues from Denham, says that the said William was 21 years of age on the sixth day before St. Michael, 26 Edw. I., and this he knows because he has a son Giles 2 years younger, who was 19 on the said day. John, now abbot of St. Edmunds and then chaplain of Sir Robert de Insula, baptized him in the church of Denham. and William de Beuchamp, steward of the heir's mother, gave him his name &c.

Peter de Denarston, knight, aged 42, distant 4 leagues from Denham, agrees and knows it because he was present at the feast of the purification of the heir's mother &c.

Reginald Pecche, knight, aged 50, distant 4 leagues from Denham, says the like, and knows it because he has a son Geoffrey half a year older, who will be 22 at the feast of St. Gregory next.

Gilbert del Haye, aged 50, distant 2 leagues from Denham, agrees, and knows it because he married his wife at the feast of St. Edward the King next before the said heir's birth, 22 years ago at the said feast last, and he has a son William born at the Gule of August next before the birth of the said heir, who will be 22 on that day next.

John de Sydalvesmere, aged 40, distant 3 leagues from Denham, says the like, and knows it because on the day of the baptism he came with his father to Denham upon business and there heard from the aforesaid John (the chaplain) that he had baptized the said heir.

Adam Bertilmeu, aged 38, distant a league from Denham, agrees, and knows it because his father, whose heir he is, died at the feast of St. Faith next after the said heir's birth, 21 years ago at that feast last past; and he says that the other godfather was called Walter de Saye.

Henry de Brockeleye, aged 36, distant 2 leagues from Denham, agrees, and he was present at the baptism.

Nicholas de Rede, aged 41, distant nearly 2 leagues from Denham, agrees, and says that the heir's godmother was Petronilla de Seye, and that his own father, whose heir he is, died at the feast of the Invention of the Holy Cross next before the heir's birth, 21 years ago at that feast last past.

John de Brocle, aged 36, distant nearly 2 leagues from Denham, agrees, and knows it because he has a sister serving the heir's mother, to whom she came on the day the heir was baptized, and was present at the baptism.

John Mauveysin, aged 50, distant 2 leagues from Denham, agrees, and knows it because he has a son William, only 8 days older than the heir, who was 21 this year on the 14th day before the feast of St. Michael.

John de Wycham, aged 40, distant a league and more from Denham, agrees, and knows it because on the day the heir was born he went to Denham to speak with Lady Amice de Say, with whom the heir's mother was in company, about buying a certain marriage from her, and found her so occupied about the heir's mother that he returned without doing anything, and on the third day after he returned and was present at the baptism.

Roger de Alverichsfeld, aged 43, distant a league and a half from Denham, agrees, and knows it because on 2 April before the heir's birth his father died, whose heir he is, and he went to the abbot of St. Edmunds and did what was due for his lands, 21 years ago last 2 April.

And because the said William has sufficiently proved his age, and appears by his aspect to be of full age, let him have seisin of the lands &c. of his inheritance.

C. Edw. I. File 86. (7.)

- - 484. ALICE DAUGHTER AND HEIR OF HUGH DE WYNDESOR.

DORSET. Proof of age taken before the king in 15 days,
26 Edw. I. (defective).

Whereas the said Alice, [who] was born [Be]menistre and baptized in the church there and sought the lands of her inheritance which are in the wardship of the bishop by the king's commission, the sheriff was commanded to summon jurors in 15 days from the [feast] of St. Martin and warn the said bishop to be present, who returned that he had done so, but the bishop said nothing why the said proof should be delayed; therefore let it be taken &c.

Peter de Bowode, aged 50, distant 2 leagues from Bucham, says that the said Alice was born at Bucham and baptized in the church of Bemenistre, and was 16 before the [day of the] Annunciation last, and this he knows because he has a daughter named Joan of the same age, and one David was priest at that time.

Nicholas de Strode of Bemenistre, aged 36, distant a league from Bucham, agrees, and knows it because he has a son John of the same age who was 16 on the day of the Annunciation next after the day on which the said Alice was born. One Robert de Boys and Alice the wife and Maud the daughter of John de Pirham (?), were godparents.

John de Uppehay, aged 36, distant 2 leagues from Bucham, agrees, and knows it because his mother died on Monday after the close of [Easter] next after the said Alice's birth, 16 years ago at Easter last.

Roger de Bosco of Childefrome, aged 40, distant 3 leagues from Bucham, agrees, and knows it because he married his wife at the feast of the Purification next before the birth of the said Alice, 16 years ago, and has a son William, born 2 years after, who was 14 at Christmas last.

Nicholas de Morteshorn, aged 36, distant a league from Bucham, agrees, and knows it because his father died in the same year 16 years ago.

Stephen de Morteshorn, aged 40, distant a league from Bucham, agrees, and knows it because he has a daughter Edith, born at Christmas before the said Alice's birth, who was 16 at Christmas last.

John de Sparkford, aged 40 and more, distant 3 leagues from Bucham, agrees, and knows it because he had a wife Denise who died 15 days before the said Alice's birth, 16 years ago.

John de la Tour of Berewyk, aged 30 and more, dwelling 5 leagues from Bucham, agrees, and knows it because he had an elder brother Thomas who died 10 days before the said Alice's birth, and he entered upon his lands 16 years ago at the feast of the Annunciation last.

William Denebaud of Henton, aged 37, distant 4 leagues from Bucham, agrees, and says that Hamo his father, on the feast of SS. Peter and Paul next after the said Alice's birth, took his journey for the Holy Land and died on the feast of St. Thomas the Apostle at Nyuns on his way home, 16 years ago.

Bartholomew de Oterei of Shireburn, aged 36, distant 10 leagues from Bucham, agrees, and knows it because William his father died at the feast of the Nativity of the Blessed Mary before the said Alice's birth, and he as his son and heir entered into his lands 17 years ago at the said feast last.

John Blauncheval of Suthpeured, aged 40, distant 2 leagues from Bucham, agrees, and knows it because the eyre of John de Reyngate was at Shireburn in 18 (rectius 8) Edw. I., and the said Alice was born the following year on the eve of the Annunciation 9 Edw. I.

Richard de Ketelbergh of Corscum, aged 40, distant 2 leagues from Bucham, agrees, and knows it because in the term next after the said Alice's birth, Robert his father lost half a virgate of land before the king's justices, by a writ of entry which Hugh father of the said Alice brought against him ; moreover he was at the banquet when her mother was purified.

Because the said Alice has sufficiently proved her age, and appears by her aspect to be of full age, viz.—16 years, let her have seisin of her lands &c.

Return :—In the rolls of the exchequer it is found amongst the serjeanties &c. that William son of Walklin held the manor of Staynesby rendering a sore sparrow-hawk, of the gift of king Henry; also in Originalia, 37 of king Henry, it is found that Robert le Sauvage rendered to John his son all the lands &c. which he held of the king in chief, the king took the said John's homage, and the sheriff of Derby was commanded to take security for his relief; also in the account of the king's escheator, 3 Edw. I. it is found that he did not answer for the issues of the manor of Staynesby, because he had rendered the manor to Hawis, late the wife of John le Savage by the king's writ containing that the king understood by inquisition that the said John held that manor of the king by socage, rendering a sore sparrow-hawk, and held nothing else of the king &c., and that the said Hawis claimed wardship of the heirs &c. as next (friend), which was committed to her saving to the king the marriage of the heirs.

The heir says he is not married; whereupon it was testified by the treasurer that the king had offered him one of the daughters of Adam de Cretingges deceased, and the heir having seen them agreed to marry the eldest. Wherefore let him have seisin of his lands &c. and let this record be sent to the chancery.

The said William le Latimer being warned came not; wherefore let the proof of age be taken,

William de Ebor, aged 60, dwelling at Lesingby, 11 leagues (or miles?) from Sokeburn where the said heir was born, says that he was 22 on Monday after St. Lambert last, and this he knows because he has a daughter, Emma, born on the quinzaine of St. Michael after the said birth, who was 22 on the said day last past. Henry son of Conan, his grandfather, was dwelling at Leverton, 5 leagues from Lesingby, at the time of the heir's birth, and there came messengers announcing the birth and praying him to come to the baptism, which from infirmity he could not do, but commanded that they should give the heir his name, whether male or female. He (the heir) was baptized at Sokeburn in the parish church; the chaplain was named Gilbert, and the godparents were William parson of the church, Thomas his clerk, and one Elizabeth lady of the said town.

John de Kyrkebi in Clivelaund, 11 leagues from Sokeburn, aged 60 and more, agrees, except that the second godfather was named John Brun, and this he knows because he holds his lands from John de Ever, his lord, who was born on the same day as the said heir, and proved his age 2 years ago.

Henry de Colton, aged 40 and more, dwelling at Colton, 50 leagues and more from Sokeburn, agrees, and knows it because his eldest son, Henry, who lately died, was born on the same day, and would have been 22 on the day of St. Lambert last.

Michael de Cnapton, aged 60, dwelling at Cnapton, 40 leagues from Sokeburn, agrees as to the age and place, and says as Walter de Hemelsay, and the heir was with his grandfather at the time of his death, and then witness saw him, who was 6 and more.

Use and Derwent, where Henry the grandfather was, when report came to him of the heir's birth.

Henry de Cruce, aged 36, dwelling at Catherton, agrees, but knows only by the relation of others.

And because the said Henry has sufficiently proved his age and appears by his aspect to be of full age, let him have seisin of the lands &c. of his inheritance, and let this record be sent to the chancery.

Writ to the escheator to take the proof of age of the said Andrew, whose lands &c. are in the wardship of Ermetrude de Saukevill, 13 April, 28 Edw. I.

DERBY. Proof of age made at Essheburn on Monday before the Annunciation, 29 Edw. I.

William le Paumer of Etewell, aged 44 and more, says that the said Andrew was born in Rodburn, and baptized in the church of St. Andrew there 4 April, 5 Edw. I, which he recollects because in the February before, a son William was born to him, who was 24 in February last, and on the day of the Invention of the Holy Cross following, Lady Ermetrude, mother of the same Andrew, was purified at Rodburn, and he was present at the feast.

William del Burwes of Brunalston, aged nearly 50, agrees, and recollects because William his father died at the feast of the Ascension after the birth, 24 years ago last Ascension day.

John son of Robert de Rodburn, aged 40 and more, agrees, adding that the said Andrew was born in the chamber of Henry de Chaundos, knight, brother of the said Ermetrude at Rodburn, and he was then in the said Henry's service,

Robert de Weston, the younger, aged 40 and more, agrees, and recollects because the eyre of John de Vallibus &c. was 20 years ago, and the said Andrew was then 3 years of age.

William de Trusseleye of Longeleye, aged 40 and more, agrees, and it is sufficiently evident to him because he has a daughter Margery born at the feast of the Circumcision before the said Andrew's birth, who was 24 at that feast last.

William de Bracyngton of Longeleye, aged nearly 50, agrees, for the said Andrew was 3 years of age and more at the time of the abovesaid eyre 20 years ago, when certain friends of his had much to do before the justices.

Robert de Aula of Macworth, aged 50, agrees, and recollects for the same reason.

Walter Truccok of Brunalston, aged 50 and more, agrees, and recollects because a year before the birth of the said Andrew he married one Isabel, now 25 years ago.

William Crin (?), aged 50, agrees, and recollects because he has a daughter Helen born at the feast of St. Nicholas next before the said Andrew, who was 24 at that feast last.

Adam son of Robert de Weston, aged . . and more, agrees, and recollects because he and his friends had much to do before the justices in eyre 20 years ago, and the said Andrew was then aged 3 years.

Writ to the justice of Ireland, on the complaint of the said James that he had begotten a daughter of the said Margery his wife, daughter of Robert son of Richard, as abovesaid, but that the escheator by pretext of an inquisition taken by jurors, ignorant of the truth, has detained the said Margery's lands &c.; commanding him to make inquisition &c. and if he finds that the said lands ought to remain to the said James for life by the courtesy of England, to deliver the same to him. Westminster, 6 Feb. 20 Edw. I.

Endorsed: Because . . . this inquisition is repugnant to the first inquisition, let no execution be made of delivering seisin to the said James.

[TIPPERARY.] Inq. made at Clare, before William de Vescey, chief justice of Ireland, on Tuesday after the Exaltation of the Holy Cross, 20 Edw. I.

A daughter was begotten between the said James and Margery before he married her, and after he married her she bore the said daughter named Rose.

Writ to the abovesaid justice of Ireland to send the inquisition he has made, as above, that the king may have it at his next parliament after Easter next, 28 Nov. 21 Edw. I.

Similar writ to the abovesaid escheator, 28 Nov. 21 Edw. I.

Memorandum of the case. After the first inquisition (recited) the lands in Adlangport and Fydoun were given into the custody of Hugh de Bruges and James Ketyng going to England three or four years after the said Margery's death obtained a writ for William de Vescey to make inquisition in Connaught, when it was found as in the second inquisition and reported to the Council three weeks after Michaelmas 20 Edw. I. (French.)

Writ to the abovesaid escheator at the suit of the said James, commanding him to make fuller enquiry in the presence of Thomas Cantok, the king's chancellor of Ireland, and of the said James, because the second inquisition is repugnant to the first, 30 Aug. 22 Edw. I.

[TIPPERARY.] Inq. made at Cassell on Wednesday after St. Peter in Cathedra, 28 Edw. I.

A child was begotten between the said James and Margery at Dundair (?) in Connaught (Connacia), named Rose, who was at the house of Philip le Marechal in Tipperary to be brought up, and survived for fifteen days and more, and was heard by John Gloucestre, John son of Daniel Ketyng, and several others, who often saw her and heard her voice.

C. Edw. I. File 55. (15.)

651. THOMAS DE BEKERING.*Writ (missing).NORTHUMBERLAND. Inq. Monday after St. Hilary, 18 Edw. [I].

Bolum. The advowson of the church held jointly with his partner Hugh de Gosebec, of the king in chief. Richard de Gesebec and Margery his wffe, whose heir the said Hugh is, presented the last parson, who still survives, and Thomas, son and heir of the said Thomas, ought to present at the next vacancy. The said Thomas held no other advowson in the county.

Endorsed: Extent of advowsons of churches which were of Thomas de Bekering in the bailiwick of Thomas de Normanvill.

*C. Edw. I. File 58. (15.)652. SIMON DE SANCTO LICIO.

Writ to Malcolm de Harlegh, escheator, to deliver to Isabel, late the wife of the said Simon, a third part of the lands and rents which were of the said Simon in Huntingdon, and which by his death the escheator has taken into the king's hand, to hold in tenancy together with the arrears of rent since the said Simon's death, until it shall be known whether the wardship ought to pertain to the king or another, 24 May 18 Edw. I.

Endorsed by the escheator, that he has never taken the said lands &c. into the king's hand and they are not in his custody.

*C. Edw. I. File 58. (16.)653. PETER DE GOUSHULL.

Petition of Ralph son and heir of the said Peter to the king and council, showing that his father held nothing of the king as of his crown but as of the honour of Aubemarle which is in the king's hand, whereupon it was considered by the council at the parliament last summer that the said Ralph should have seisin of the other lands held by his late father in socage, if it were found at the exchequer that he held nothing as of the crown at the time of his death; it has been so found and Hugh de Notingham, treasurer's clerk, endorsed the inquisition accordingly, yet the said Ralph cannot have execution; whereof he prays remedy.
